A vote against Senator Hitchcock is a vote against Woodrow Wilson. "I want you to remember that a President without a Congress that is heart and soul for the things that he represents is absolutely as useless as a figure head."—Woodrow Wilson.—Adv.

F. D. McCormick, president of the volunteer fire department, is planning on purchasing a diving suit for use while hunting. Mack likes to hunt but lately on his trips he seems to have found it difficult to stay in the boat and hip boots prove a poor protection when one is in water up to his neck, or when one falls into the water head first.

"God has never made a cleaner, better, or more patriotic citizen than Gilbert M. Hitchcock. The administration owes a debt of gratitude to Senator Hitchcock for the part he took in perfecting the banking and currency act."—Vice President Marshall.—Adv.
